Dharwar District, more conveniently than by the present arrangment of irrigating the said lands from Dharma Canal passing through a circuitous and low-level route;

(b) whether they are aware that by the proposed new channel of Dharma Canal will bring more area under Dharma Canal Irrigation and also effectively irrigates the area now being irrigated by Dharma Canal;

(c) the action Government proposes to take in the matter?

A.—Sri H. K. VEERANNA GOWDH (Minister for Public Works and Electricity).—

(a) No.

(b) and (c) It is found that the quantity of water estimated to be available is just adequate to meet the requirements of the contemplated atchkat of 14,000 acres under the project. The question of extending irrigation to the areas mentioned under clause (a) above can only be examined after watching the actual behaviour of the project for some years.
